REGION

Veneto

The Veneto is an extremely important region in the north-east of Italy, stretching from the west at the shores of Lake Garda as far north as the Alps, the Austrian border and the Venetian hinterland. It is Italy's largest wine-producing region. DOC wines represent well over a quarter of total produc... Read More

GRAPE

Glera (Prosecco)

Glera is the name by which the grape Prosecco is now officially known. This changed in 2009 when Prosecco di Conegliano-Valdobbiadene was promoted to full DOCG status (the highest level of Italian wine quality). It has grown for hundreds of years in Veneto and Friuli regions in Italy. A white grape v... Read More

TASTING NOTES

Vino Vispo all about drinkability and also beautiful aromatics which really jump out of the glass. It's floral with a touch of peach, white nectarine. It cannot be called Prosecco simply because it's not bottled at origin. Other than that it's made exactly the same way by an award winning producer of Prosecco in Italy - Enrico Bedin who have a great history of producing quality sparkling Prosecco.
