GROWER

Tenuta di Aglaea

Originally from Copenhagen, Denmark, Anne-Louise Mikkelsen spent years working with top wine producers in France and Italy before deciding to set up her own winery in Etna, Sicily. She was attracted to this region by the unique terroir, which has volcanic soils which are rich and fertile as a result... Read More

TASTING NOTES

It is bright cherry red. Dried herbs and minerals make up the gentle perfumes, while on the palate good acidity and hints of dry cherries capture the senses. A light savoury mouth feel lingers towards the end.
