GROWER

Chateau de la Greffiere

Chateau de la Greffiere is a typically 'mâconnaise' house, with an old winery (now converted into a museum) which shows evidence of winemaking going back as far as the late 1500s. The cellar was added to the property in 1789 and followed relatively soon after by the house which still stands, built i... Read More

REGION

Burgundy

Burgundy is a region in eastern France famous for its red and white wines made almost exclusively from Pinot Noir and Chardonnay respectively. Sparkling wine, known as Cremant de Bourgogne, is produced using the traditional method, usually from a blend of these grape varieties. Vineyards are based on... Read More

GRAPE

Gamay

Gamay is a French red grape variety which is solely responsible for the wines of Beaujolais in central-eastern France. Its full name is Gamay Noir à Jus Blanc which draws attention to the fact that it is a red grape variety, but has pale flesh and therefore pale juice. The vine is precocious, budding...
