TASTING NOTES

J-M Haag Riesling Grand Cru Zinnkoepfle 2020. Haag's current release of GC Riesling, this is bright and zinging with energy. There is a core of taut minerality, allied to a lime zest and grapefruit buzz. Still youthful, it is starting to develop some spice and herb complexity. The uppish citrus acidity ensures this one will evolve gracefully and slowly. Give it 8+ years at least.

Jean-Marie Haag

The wine-growing village of Soultzmat is 20 km to the south of Colmar, and this flourishing community is at the heart of the Vallé Noble. From the 11th to the 16th century, various noble families built as many as seven chateaux in the area, and henceforth it came to be known as "vallis praenobilis"... Read More

Alsace

The Alsace lies on the eastern French border with Germany - it is historically much-disputed and was for many years part of western Germany, known as Elsass. It is to a certain extent cut off from both countries - from Germany by the River Rhine and from France by the Vosges mountains, a geographica... Read More

Riesling

Riesling is a high quality white grape variety whose traditional home is the wine-making regions of Germany such as the Pfalz or the Mosel. It has a propensity for cooler climates, producing very fine wines of an aromatic nature with high acidity and often the capability to age well. It is a versati... Read More
